A venue entwined in history of the Gunpowder Plot

Join us for an unforgettable evening where history and festivity collide. There is only one place to celebrate Bonfire Night, as the former home of Francis Tresham, the notorious, anti-protestant Gunpowder Plot conspirator, Rushton Hall provides the most stylish backdrop in Northamptonshire for such an event.

Celebrate with us in this truly unique setting, where the past comes to life in an evening of fine dining, festive drinks and a breath taking fireworks display.

Guests will be welcomed with the soothing sounds of pianist, Nigel Hammond, and a glass of Laurent Perrier Champagne as they arrive. The evening will unfold with a three-course meal, paired perfectly with a glass of our finest house wine. You will then be invited to marvel at the spectacular fireworks display with a glass of mulled wine, creating a truly unforgettable experience.

Why not make a night of it and stay with us in our luxurious hotel? Enjoy the comfort and convenience of our stunning bedrooms, allowing you to fully relax and extend the enjoyment of this unforgettable evening. You will be able to check-in from 3pm and make use of our Stableyard Spa facilities prior the evening events commencing and followed the next morning by a full English breakfast.
